Celebration of Courage Series: 15th Year Birthday Bash

This year's Celebration of Courage Family Festival marked 15 years of providing JoyRx to thousands of seriously ill children and their families. The fun-filled, sunny afternoon kicked off with dance tunes from Portland's very own Hit Machine as people from Oregon and SouthWest Washington were welcomed to join us in celebration. Guests enjoyed a fabulous birthday celebration with this year's selected Community Heroes, past Community Heroes, balloon artists, face painters, stilt walkers, games, a photo booth, arts & crafts, cotton candy and more! Adults and children of all ages were tantalized by Alexander-Master of Marvels as he charmed the crowd with his magical moves. The Honda FIT raffle car, generously donated by Parker Johnstone's Wilsonville Honda, went home with Bob Bradley of Tigard, Oregon who held the winning ticket number.

And what would a birthday party be without a cake? Beaverton Bakery made everyone's dream come true, with a 6-foot-tall birthday cake, commemorating this monumental celebration. Spirits were high as everyone sang Happy Birthday during the cake cutting ceremony. All in all, this very special Celebration of Courage Family Festival proved to be a huge success as we honored our Heroes and the whole community! Special thanks to all who attended and took part in making this memorable event a truly magical experience for all.

A Special Anniversary Hero Gala Extravaganza

The 15th Anniversary Hero Gala was, without a doubt, one of the most inspiring Children's Cancer Association events to date! Guests arrived at the Nike Tiger Woods Center dressed to the nines with fanciful and original purple flare. Music from the Pacific Crest Orchestra and laughter from guests permeated the rotunda as attendees mingled, shared memories and placed bids on fabulous auction items before gathering together to "unwrap" a gift from CCA—a fabulous celebratory performance featuring acts from The Jefferson Dancers, poet Kate Gray, Chosen Generation Choir, AWOL Dance Collective, Gino Vannelli, 101.9 KINK's Sheila Hamilton and Patrick Lamb. During dinner, Steve Jensen, a parent served by CCA's programs, shared heartwarming stories of how deeply CCA's programs impacted his family while his son, Luke, bravely battled leukemia before his death in May 2010.

Our Celebration of Courage series, which includes the Hero Gala, raised more than $632,000 this year! Thank you to all of our guests for your inspiring generosity and commitment to ensuring many more years of delivering Joy Rx to seriously ill children and their families.

Music Rx® Program Spreading Joy Through Music

Cy is a quiet, intelligent and articulate 12-year-old boy who enjoys spending time on the computer or reading a good book. He describes himself as a computer geek, who has a silly side and loves to play practical jokes on the medical staff, “especially when I make them jump!” His mom describes him as the wisest person she knows.

In May of 2010, Cy was diagnosed with acute myeloid leukemia. Since then, he and his mother have spent most of their days in the hospital, while he has endured several rounds of chemotherapy as well as a bone marrow transplant. He really misses being at home, at school, and hanging out with his friends and his big brother, who he admiringly says is a computer nerd just like him...only “enlightened to a higher level of geekdom.”

One very special thing he and his mom have appreciated about being at the hospital is having the chance to experience the healing power of live harp music from CCA's Music Rx team. “Music Rx brings a window of peace into his life here at the hospital,” says Beth, Cy's mom. She went on to say, “Before their visits, I had no idea the harp had such a powerful impact on mind and body. I now regard Cy's music sessions as essential components of his recovery.”

Because of CCA's Music Rx Program, Cy has developed a love for the harp.

Cy has his own opinions about Music Rx, “To put a long story short, harp music is awesome! It makes the most beautiful sound and makes me feel so peaceful. All in all, the good in the hospital does outweigh the bad!”

“CCA's Music Rx® program served seven regional medical facilities, provided 1,300 hours of bedside music and 508 palliative service interactions to terminally ill children, teens and their family members.”

The Caring Cabin™ Providing a Magical Family Getaway

Waking up early with a cup of hot coffee, snuggling with your children, relaxing, reading a good book. None of these activities seems life-changing and yet for a family faced with pediatric illness, life's simple pleasures often seem too few and far between.

For the Portman family, every moment their 5-year-old son Brayden is feeling good is a time for celebration. Brayden has Ewing's sarcoma and has to receive chemotherapy treatments every two weeks. He is often so tired that the time in between treatments are spent resting and recovering. So, when Brayden woke up one day feeling like his spunky little self, his family decided to take full advantage and head off for an adventure at CCA's Caring Cabin.

The weekend was devoted to time together for life's simple pleasures. They spent their days on the beach in Cape Kiwanis, riding dune buggies on the sand, playing in the big toy room at the Caring Cabin, and Brayden's personal favorite – getting filthy in the sand box! For this outgoing little guy, being surrounded by friends and family for three days was just about the greatest thing imaginable. In the evenings, they ate together around the fabulous dining table, followed by 'smores and stories around the campfire.

When it was time to go home, the Portman family looked around the Caring Cabin, took a deep breath and ushered Brayden and his brother out the door. Back to hospital beds, shots and endless medical decisions. However, the joyful memories they made together at the Caring Cabin would last a lifetime.

Chemo Pal Program Easing the Burden of Treatment with Friendship and Fun

Caitlyn is a fun-loving, bubbly 14-year-old, who is everyone's friend. Her mom says she is "definitely a teenager" who loves to text and listen to music. Caitlyn has colon cancer, which is the third type of cancer she has had since her first diagnosis at 15 months old. She is used to putting on a brave face to get through tough times. However, with her Chemo Pal Amanda, she has a friend to stand beside her.

When Caitlyn met her Chemo Pal, she was in the hospital going through a painful procedure. Amanda walked right up to her bed and they started gabbing like they had known each other for years. "We can talk about anything and everything. It's really cool to have someone there that wants to be with you and sits with you while you are in the hospital. Also, we get to do outings outside the hospital, which are just so much fun," says Caitlyn.

Their most recent outing together was a big surprise for Amanda. While she was out at dinner with friends, Caitlyn and the KATU Channel 2 news team snuck up on her and presented her with an “Everyday Hero” award for her life-changing work as a Chemo Pal. Amanda really appreciated the honor, but can’t understand what all the fuss is about. “I just love, love hanging out with Caitlyn. It’s been wonderful getting to know somebody in her teen years who I can connect with and have a conversation with...it’s been great.”

“ More than 404 family members retreated to our beautiful 23 acre Caring Cabin™ in Pacific City, Oregon. ”

“ CCA paired over 205 children and teens with an adult mentor in our Chemo Pal® program, a 47% increase from the prior year. ”

LifeSupport Family Enrichment Program

Meeting Critical Needs and Tailoring Support for Families

When 10-year-old Karli mentioned that she was a huge Brad Paisley fan, CCA’s LifeSupport Family Enrichment program jumped at the opportunity to make this little girl’s dream come true. Karli bravely fought osteosarcoma (bone cancer) for ten months. Through rounds of chemo, pain and exhaustion, this little princess has kept her happy-go-lucky attitude. CCA’s LifeSupport program found out Brad Paisley was coming to town, so they got to work planning a night where she was center stage.

Karli’s wish started with a shopping spree where she and her best friend Linzie found matching outfits for the concert - looking like twins from their socks to their nail polish! On the night of the concert, Karli, Linzie and their parents hopped in their private limousine packed with balloons and sparkling cider, laughing all the way from their homes in Eugene to the concert in Ridgefield, Washington.

All night Karli had an ear-to-ear smile plastered on her face as she sang along to her favorite songs. She got a surprise backstage meeting with the country star, where the normally chatty little girl felt a little shy, but was able to tell him how much it meant to meet him. She turned every shade of red when Paisley replied, “It means more for me to get to meet you!”

After the concert, they spent the night in a luxury hotel and the next day enjoyed a fabulous dinner before traveling back home in their limo. Karli’s mom had this to say about the experience, “This was one of the happiest moments in my daughter’s life. I haven’t seen her smile like that in a long time.”

“ Our family support assistance increased by 115%, and our bilingual LifeSupport Family Enrichment program increased service by 49%, serving more than 1,000 family members. ”

Sponsor a Holiday Family

CCA's LifeSupport Family Enrichment program brings hope, compassion and joy during the holidays to local families who have a seriously ill child and are experiencing severe financial difficulty. We invite you to participate in the heartwarming experience of sponsoring a family for the holidays. Join together with family, friends, colleagues, teammates, classmates, church groups, etc., for a fulfilling holiday experience.

For more information, contact Bev Tollefson at btollefson@JoyRx.org or call 503-200-5109.

Intel employees and Direct Transport gathered to load a truck full of wrapped gifts for sponsored Holiday Families.

“ I was worried about how I could give my kids a Christmas, and CCA was there for me and the whole family. ”

– Mother of 5-year-old Kelsey

Volunteer with Us!

This year alone, 1,300 community members have dedicated their time to volunteer with the Children's Cancer Association. It's a great way to get involved and give back to local families suffering from pediatric illnesses. Whether your interests are in supporting CCA events, being a Chemo Pal mentor, internships or office support, CCA has a place for you! For more information on volunteering with CCA, please contact Volunteer@JoyRx.org or 503-244-3141.

Five-year-old Conner gave back this year by donating his birthday gifts to the Chemo Pal Program.

Be a part of CCA's future

Marsha was first introduced to CCA while managing the community giving program as a District Manager for Target. After seeing a tour of CCA's Music Rx program in action. Marsha, a lover of music, said, "That was it for me! I was over-whelmed by the smiles and the joy down in my heart!"

This year, Marsha and Gene decided to make a lasting impact by including CCA in their will.

From that point on, Marsha made sure Target was a grant partner and major contributor of volunteer support for CCA. Since retiring, her support has remained strong through her involvement on the Board of Directors. She attends nearly every event, brings her wisdom and expertise to staff retreats through her educational trainings and shares her connections and business savvy mind whenever she is called upon.

Marsha, a cancer survivor, and her husband Gene have no children, yet their passion to see seriously ill children and their families supported by CCA's award-winning programs and services is profound. This year, Marsha and Gene decided to make a gift in their estate plan to four organizations that have been instrumental in their lives, including CCA. With this inspirational gift, Marsha and Gene have become inaugural members of CCA's Founder's Society.

The Founders Society recognizes the foresight and generosity of friends who have made plans to support CCA through wills, trusts, life income funds, real estate, retirement plans, and life insurance gifts.

- Marsha and Gene Brockmeyer
- Gay and Judi Davis
- Cliff Ellis
- Regina Ellis
- Clare Hamill
- Dave Schaeffer
- John and Mary Turina

Like Marsha, we invite you to give serious consideration to becoming a Founders Society member. If you have already remembered CCA in your estate plan, please let us know so we can acknowledge your generosity.

Community Events: Get Involved. Be Inspired

CCA is able to say "yes" to thousands of seriously ill children and their families every year thanks in part to some incredible community events. For a full list of CCA events, please visit www.JoyRx.org.

Holiday Ale Festival, Pioneer Courthouse Square December 1-5th

An annual tradition for Portland beer lovers and CCA, this holiday seasons best ale festival is giving back! Held in the heart of downtown Portland, the Holiday Ale Festival keeps attendees warm and dry under a large clear top tent that covers Pioneer Courthouse Square. More than 50 potent winter ales are featured at this year's event, all of which are created specifically to bring warmth and cheer to the holiday season. To learn more about the Holiday Ale festival visit www.holidayale.com.

Levé Charity Ball, Disjecta December 3rd at 7 p.m.

CCA is proud to be selected as the beneficiary of Levé's Charity Ball! This year's event will be held at Disjecta in North Portland and features a fabulous silent auction, wonderful food and drinks, and great friends. Tickets are $30 in advance and $35 at the door. Please visit www.leve-nw.org to learn more or purchase tickets.

CCA Holiday Cards Are Here!

Purchase them for your corporation, friends and family. $9 for a package of 12 cards, four of each design. Stop by our offices to purchase yours today, or visit the CCA store on our website. Artwork was chosen from designs submitted by kids in our local community.

Valentines Day for CCA with 105.1 the Buzz

February 10 & 11, 2011

Join Nelson, Terry and Stacey as we celebrate the 6th annual Valentine's Day for CCA 28-hour radiothon. Tune in to listen to stories of bravery and courage, bid on fantastic auction items, participate in the car raffle or call in to donate and make a difference.

Tickets for the car raffle will be available soon. Special thanks to Dick Hannah for donating a car and allowing all proceeds to directly benefit CCA's programs. Check the CCA website for more details.

Genentech's "Block Out Cancer" Campaign

2010-2011 Blazer season

Join Genentech in the "Block Out Cancer" Campaign as they donate $25 from each Blazer's blocked shot at home games during the 2010-2011 season. Get involved and help local families and children by visiting www.joyrx.org/blockshot

The planning committee for the first ever Music As Medicine event. The event to benefit CCA raised more than $30,000.
